Part A, Question 7

Step 1: Analyze the question

7 Find an expression in paragraph 8 that the writer uses to describe how the team initially encountered a lack of enthusiasm.

Short response

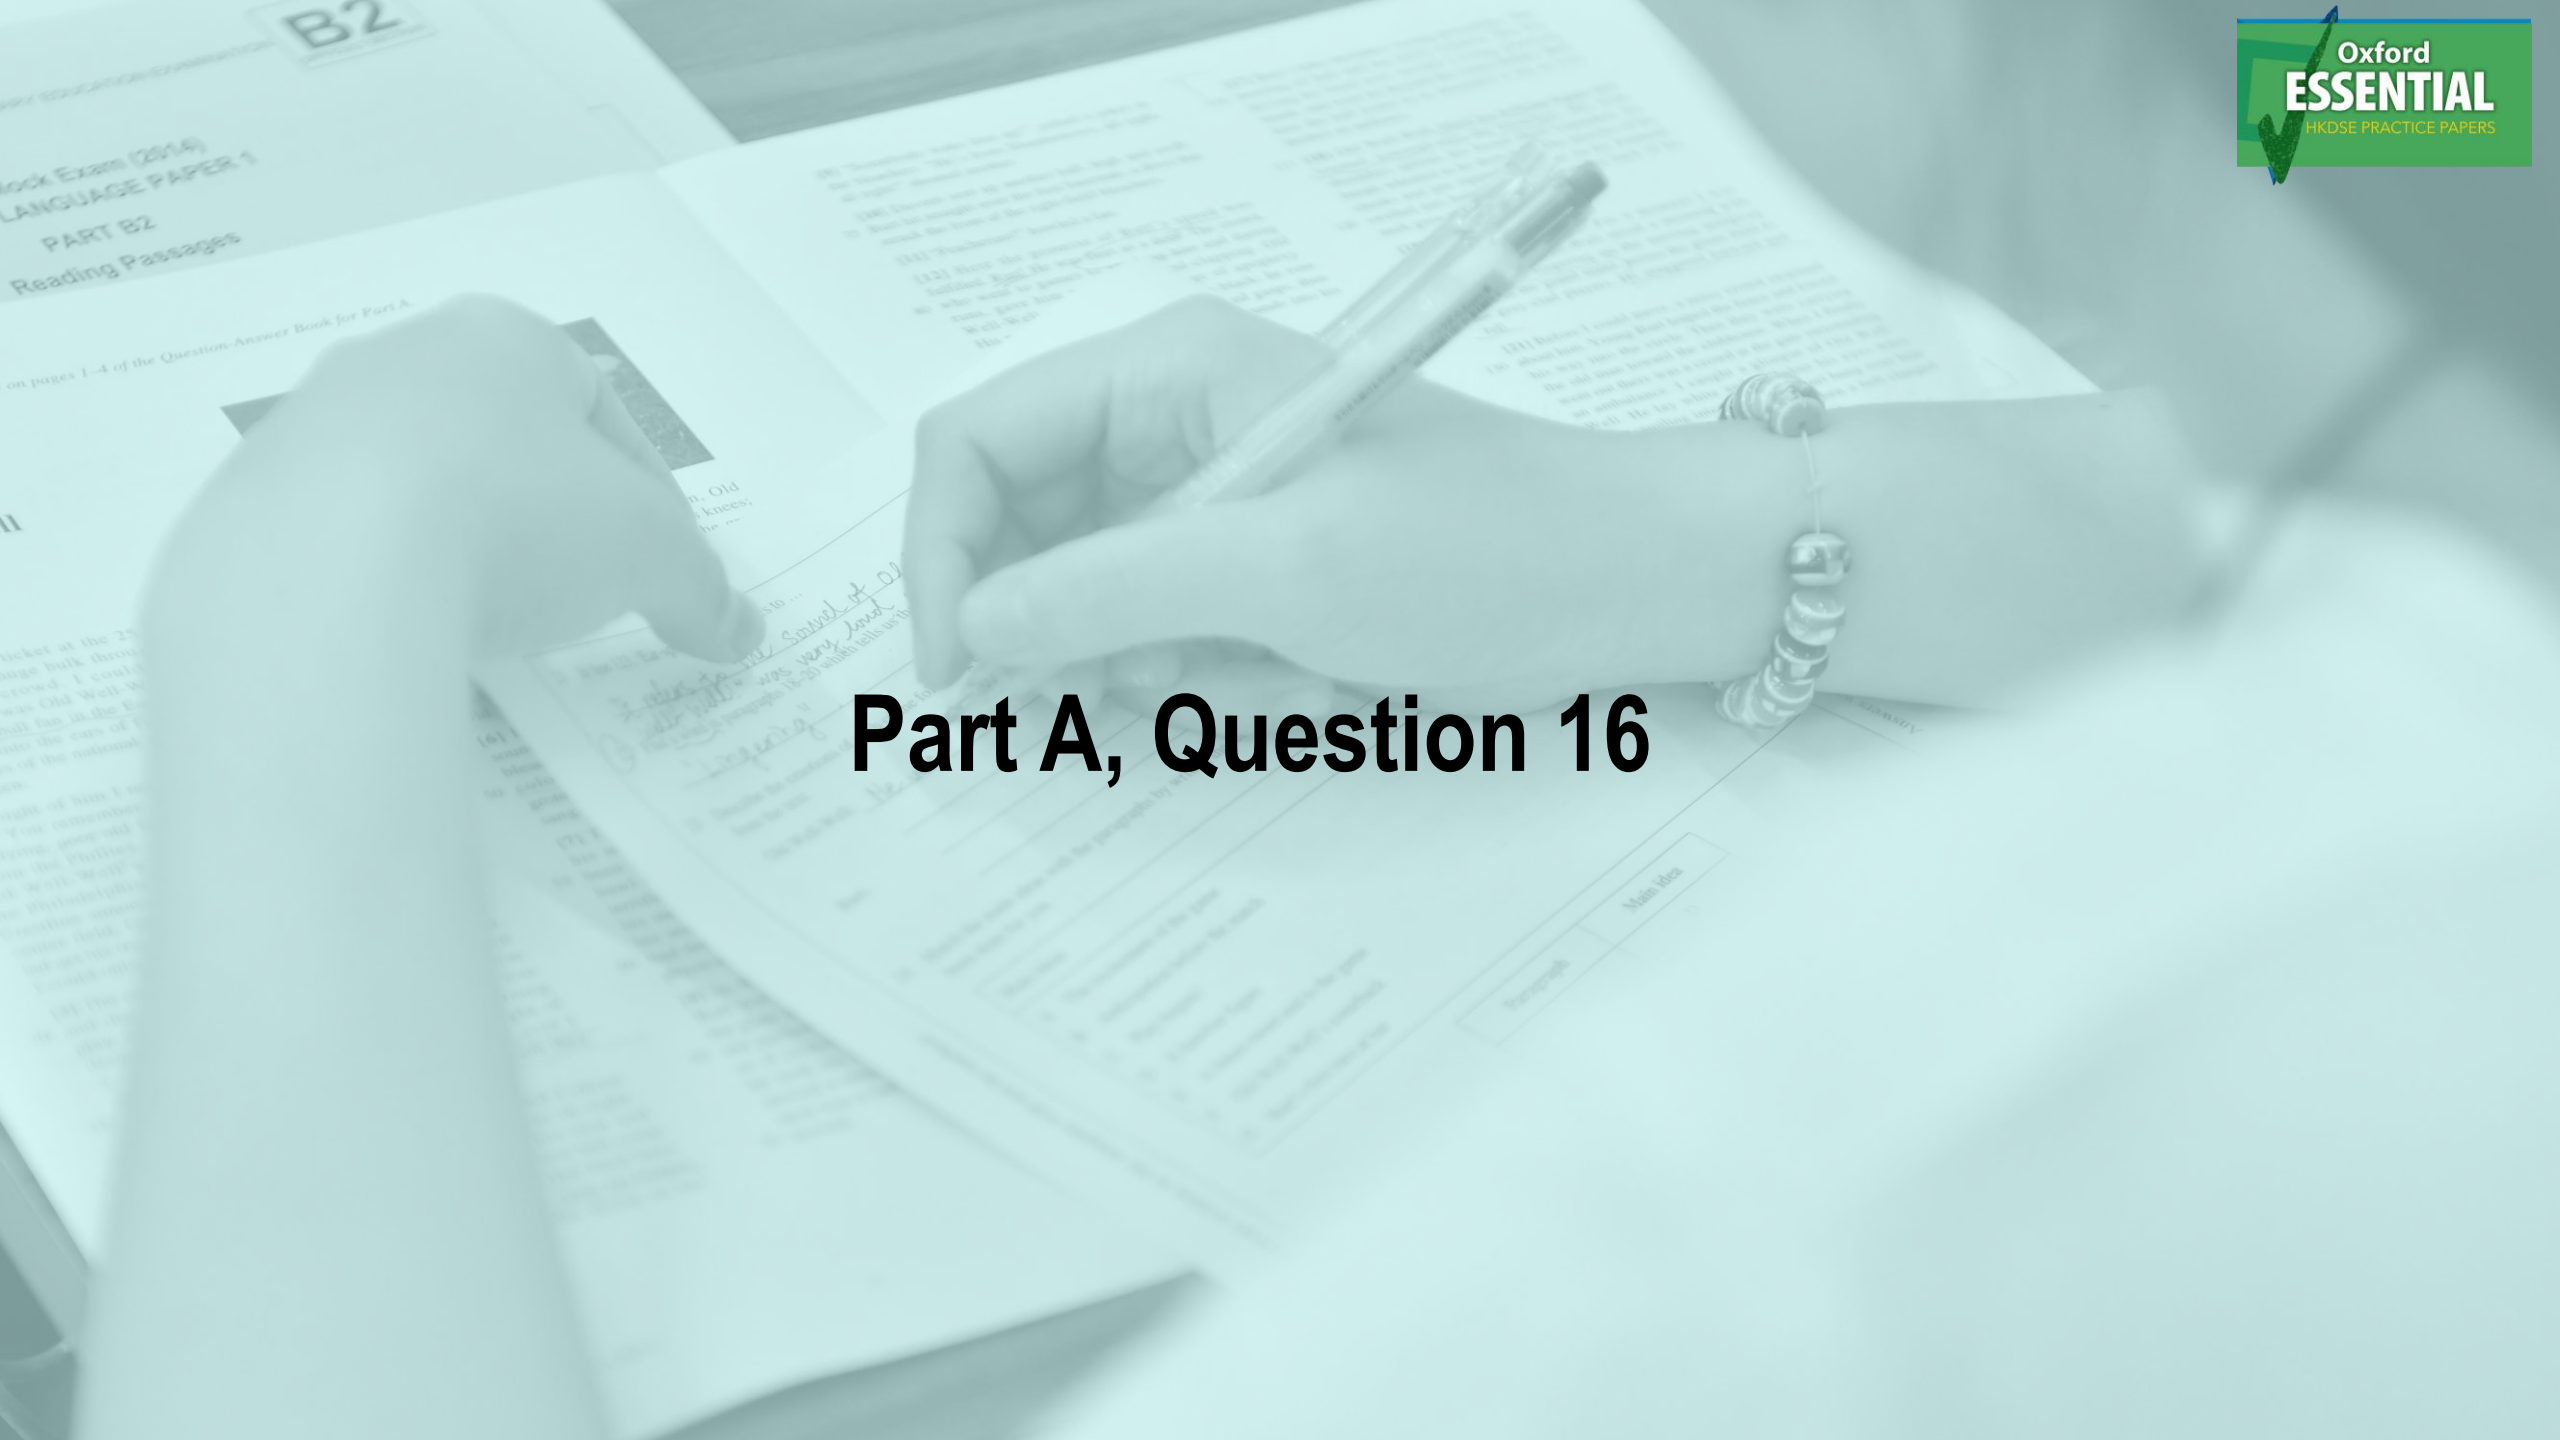

Figurative language

Step 2: Analyze the text

[8] Knowing that barley was healthful, Mr. Gopi, Ms. Jimenez and a third founder, Jessica Aguirre, nibbled it plain. Spent grains look and taste like brown rice, without the heft. They stirred the stuff into porridge, and baked it into cookies and cakes. But when they took the dried grain to bakers to gauge their interest, they were 25 met with shrugs.

Step 3: Answer the question

- 7 Find an expression in paragraph 8 that the writer uses to describe how the team initially encountered a lack of enthusiasm.

Step 2: Analyze the text

[18] In order to grow, Rise applied to several business accelerators that could provide money and mentorship. In 2016, after Ms. Jimenez got her doctorate, Rise joined Food-X, an accelerator in New York City, and completed plans for a mechanical process that could speed flour production. The program connected them to a lawyer who 55 helped them file a patent for the method in 2017.
